

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

It's time again for Jamboree

TO THE EDITOR:

Jamboree is an annual production of Ridgewood High School's Jamboree Scholarship Fund. Scholarship funds are raised through ticket sales, Jamboree Program Journal ads and donations. Proceeds from Jamboree are distributed on the basis of need, to RHS seniors pursuing higher education – and their dreams. In the past eight years, Jamboree has raised more than $710,000 and granted scholarships to 128 graduating seniors.

This year's 65th show boasts over 95 on and back-stage parents/guardians, a nine-piece band and literally dozens of volunteers who all work together to make the show a success.

So come on out and support Jamboree! Ticket sales will go directly to the scholarship fund. Shows will be held at the Benjamin Franklin Middle School, 335 N. Van Dien Ave. Open dress rehearsal and Senior Citizen's Night will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 8. Jamboree 2012 "There's No BIZ Like Show BIZ" will open on Thursday, Feb. 9 and also run on Friday and Saturday evenings. All shows will start at 8 p.m., except closing night, Saturday, Feb. 11, when the show will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets can be purchased online at rhsjamboree.org and at the door. We also encourage everyone to patronize area merchants who support the show, because without them, there would be no Jamboree.

Thanks, and we look forward to seeing you at the show!

Producers Dick Majors,
Nickiann Bussanich, Josephine
Peacock, and Rob Taylor

MARION BROWN/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Members of the Jamboree 2012 cast during a recent rehearsal.